Look to Your Interests.

The people are aware that O. H. H. No.

427 Main street, is the oldest, largest and most experienced manufacturer of trunks and similar articles in the city. They should avail themselves of the rare opportunities afforded by Mr. O. H. H. To country and city merchants he offers peculiar advantages in his wholesale department, while in the retail line he cannot be equaled. Whoever wants to travel, whether with a small carpet-bag or a mammoth trunk, need go no further than to the Great Western Trunk Factory of Mr. O. H. H.

His manufactory is a credit to Louisville, and should meet with extensive patronage. Hundreds of workmen are employed, and thousands of dollars weekly disbursed. As a matter of course, he is a valuable citizen, and as a man, he is a noble and generous. Purchasers will consult their best interests in purchasing of Mr. O. H. H.

Mr. O. H. H. is the well known auctioneer, ready to accept any kind of consignments of new and second-hand furniture, which will be promptly attended to. The sales of the above mentioned articles will be every Thursday during the season. Remittances made immediately after the sale. Commission charged higher than any other auctioneer in the city.

Particular attention is given to out-door articles and real estate. The well known character of Mr. O. H. H. as a salesman requires no recommendation here. When, for years, he has been so successful in the business men of the city, and especially by the foreign population, it is not surprising that he is a regular and successful business man. His regular sales of dry goods, boots and shoes, clothes, etc., every Wednesday.

Important Notice.—J. M. Armstrong, on

Main street, opposite the National Hotel, is now in receipt of some very nice styles of young's and children's clothing. Also men's clothing of all sizes, together with a full stock of the celebrated Winchester style of shirt, hosiery, gloves, and under garments for ladies and gentlemen, which he is offering at very low prices. Call and see him and examine his stock.

Unusually Cheap.—Is a drop of food should more cautiously be exercised than the "drop of life" bread. In order to have it healthy and nutritious, good flour and pure water are necessary. Harley's Quick Yeast is the best article in use, and in using it there is no fear of swallowing a dyspeptic with your breakfast. 45c

LOOK AT THIS AUTHORITY.

Dr. RUDECK—Dear Sir: It is due to you and the public, more especially the afflicted, to say that I have given your invaluable Scandinavian Blood Purifier a fair trial in a number of cases of diseases arising from unhealthy blood, in all of which it was cured and my expectations and those of my patients recommendations. I do, therefore, with pleasure, recommend it to all the afflicted whose disease illuminates a remedy of that description.

Very truly,

Dr. JAMES HAYNES.

Advise to Readers.—We are aware there are many of our busy readers who are complaining of weakness and debility. Our advice is to go at once and get one of Mr. Allen's Strengthening Cordial and Blood Purifier. It is a delicious tonic, and just the article of strengthening and invigorating the whole organism, and purify the blood. See advertisement in another column. Sold here by all drug stores.

SHAWNEE OR DRINK.—Shawnee, who according to a western editor, was a writer of no little ability and of considerable originality, very sagaciously, that "the appeal of and seventy-seven years later, would doubt-Letter from North Carolina.

(By Our Own Correspondent.)

Wilmington, N. C., Jan. 17, 1860.

Gentlemen: For the want of something to write that would in any wise interest your numerous readers, I have delayed by regular posting. I am still without anything of "startling interest," but such as I will give.

As might have been expected, the outbreak in Virginia fell like a thunder-bolt on the impulsive people of North Carolina, and dissolution was the only word that greeted your ear on all sides. The Legislature, when assembled, passed resolutions, which you have seen; but in the course of time, when the perpetrators of that act suffered the extreme penalties of the law, the Southern mind was very much excited. I heard a very old and very able and substantial young man remark the other day, "I have no fears of a dissolution; we have many, many men, who will, should the time come, be found on the side of the Union and forever." There are a very large number of men throughout the South that will stand by our glorious Union until all is over.

There are a majority of the masses who will uphold this government at all hazards. After having exchanged opinions with a gentleman from the South, I find that disunion has no stable abiding place anywhere, save in a few places, such as Virginia, where it is not only not a political, but a religious question. In the South, it is a religious question, and in the North, it is a political question. In

Arrival of the Europa.

SACKVILLE, Jan. 16.—The steamer Europa, with dates from Liverpool to the 31st, via Queenstown, arrived at the city yesterday morning. The line is not working in order. The express rider waiting some hours at Halifax in the city. The steamer might resume operations, but it did not arrive here till four o'clock this morning.

The news is of considerable interest. The steamer Europa, for New York direct, was to leave Liverpool at about the same hour as the Europa.

The steamer Edinburgh, from New York, arrived at Liverpool on the morning of the 23rd. The steamer Fulton, from New York, arrived at Liverpool on the morning of the 23rd.

The date for the meeting of the European Congress, seems as yet doubtful. It was vaguely reported that Austria, Spain, and Naples will not send plenipotentiaries unless the Pope is represented, regarding which doubt has been expressed.

Russia rejects the programme advanced in the recent French pamphlet.

The Paris correspondent of the Europa, writes that there were serious difficulties in the French Cabinet. The rumors circulated with reference to the Pope's refusal to be officially declared.
